NEWS RELEASE

Montreal, May 15th, 1964.

SAME SENT TO: THE DAILY NEWS and THE EVENING TELEGRAM, St.John, Newfoundland.

A Newfounidlander makes good in Retailing School at Montreal.

Thursday night at the graduation ceremony of Sir George Williams School of Retailing of Sir George Williams University, Winston Briffet native of Glovertown was awarded a gold watch for the best field work by students attending the School of Retailing.

Mr. Briffet came to Sir George Williams in 1962 on a Scholarship offered by Bowring Brothers. While attending Glovertown's Central High School he won the "Confederation Scholarship of Newfoundland". The award is offered by the co-operating store's committee, to the student who in their opinion, has done the best field work.
